

Steven G. Hall

Shareholder

Atlanta | 404.221.6515 | shall@bakerdonelson.com

Steven Hall concentrates his practice in business and commercial litigation with a focus on complex disputes in a variety of areas including real estate, health care and intellectual property.

Mr. Hall's practice is built from core experience in litigation, including commercial disputes, healthcare disputes, real estate and construction litigation, business torts and appellate practice. Mr. Hall has more than 25 years of substantive involvement in a wide variety of litigation and is often involved in equitable actions seeking temporary (TRO), preliminary and/or permanent injunctions.

Representative Matters

- Represented real estate development company in dispute as to ownership of a $100 million real estate development.
- Representation of physician practice groups, physical therapy groups and other health care providers.
- Represented pharmaceutical drug manufacturer in multiple patent, trademark and Lanham Act disputes.
- Represented waste management company in litigation regarding permitting from municipal waste facilities.
- Representation of employers, employees and contracting parties in disputes regarding non-compete agreements and other restrictive covenants.
- Representation of individuals and corporations in trade secret disputes.
- Representation of individuals and companies in dozens of TROs and/or preliminary injunction hearings in a wide variety of disputes.

Professional Honors & Activities

- Recipient – Baker Donelson Firm-wide Pro Bono Attorney of the Year, 2010
- Selected as one of "Georgia's Legal Elite," by Georgia Trend magazine, 2010, 2011, 2013
- Recipient – Daily Report's Guardianship and Elder Law Pro Bono Award, 2008
- Member – State Bar of Georgia
- Member – State Bar of North Carolina
- Member – Atlanta Bar Association
- Member – American Bar Association

Education

- University of North Carolina School of Law, J.D. with Honors, 1992
- Emory University, B.A., 1989

Admissions

- Georgia Bar, 1993
- North Carolina Bar, 1992