Kelly M. Preteroti is an experienced trial lawyer focused on fiduciary litigation and resolution of estate and trust disputes.

Ms. Preteroti is a skilled and aggressive litigator who regularly represents corporate and individual fiduciaries and beneficiaries in trust and estate-related disputes.

Ms. Preteroti has a national fiduciary litigation practice, handling matters throughout the Firm's footprint. Fiduciary disputes typically arise between individuals or financial institutions acting in a fiduciary capacity (such as a trustee or personal representative) and beneficiaries of a trust or estate. Ms. Preteroti is well-versed in trust and estate law and the nuances of litigating these matters in all venues, which vary from state to state.

Fiduciary disputes can be very contentious. Ms. Preteroti is a trial lawyer who knows what it takes to win. She takes a strategic and detail-oriented approach to each engagement, pushing hard for her clients in an effort to quickly and efficiently resolve the dispute.

While some cases must be tried, Ms. Preteroti is a strong proponent of mediation and alternative dispute resolution, and has handled many mediations and arbitration proceedings. At times, Ms. Preteroti serves as a neutral, assisting fiduciaries with resolving disputes amongst factioning beneficiaries before they devolve into protracted litigation.

Ms. Preteroti regularly lectures and publishes guidance on key issues for fiduciaries and beneficiaries in avoiding and resolving fiduciary disputes. Ms. Preteroti also hosts the Firm's Annual Fiduciary Counsel Roundtable where lead counsel for corporate fiduciaries are invited to Washington, D.C. to discuss best practices and issues that are top of mind.

Before entering private practice, Ms. Preteroti worked for the Honorable Lynne A. Battaglia on the Commission on Professionalism, which was established to explore and monitor the implementation of the professionalism policies adopted by the Court of Appeals.

From 2007 to 2011, Ms. Preteroti acted as general counsel for the Baltimore Junior Association of Commerce. From 2011 to 2016, she sat on the board of directors of BMore Fit, a 501(c) (3) with the mission of providing Baltimore City youth with physical fitness skills for lifelong, healthy living. Ms. Preteroti presently serves on the Board of the Wednesday Law Club.

Representative Matters

- Successfully defended a trustee in an action by a beneficiary involving breach of fiduciary duty and constructive fraud claims, resulting in payment by the challenging beneficiary of the trustee's attorneys' fees and outstanding commissions totaling more than $330,000 and dismissal of all claims, with prejudice.
- Successfully pursued a declaratory judgment action against trustees in an arbitration proceeding involving the administration of an eight-figure charitable remainder unitrust and distributions due the primary beneficiaries. Obtained a sweeping ruling in favor of the beneficiaries, including payment of attorneys' fees.

- Successfully resolved dispute amongst beneficiaries, on behalf of corporate fiduciary, over reciprocal estate plans involving four multi-million dollar trusts, negotiating a complex resolution and seeking a judicial modification of a Florida irrevocable trust.
- Successfully defended a challenge to a multi-million dollar Florida marital trust, stemming from claims of undue influence by two children of a first marriage against the long-term spouse from a second marriage.
- Successfully pursued a claim of undue influence on behalf of the personal representative against a family friend that took advantage of a wealthy elderly individual with no children. Ms. Preteroti's efforts restored large bequests to charities and resulted in the recovery of high-dollar, non-probate accounts.
- Successfully removed a lawyer trustee for mismanaging trust property and failing to comply with fiduciary duties in her management of the trust.
- Successfully pursued a declaratory judgment action involving a contract to make a will where the widow was left to contend with a pre-marriage, decades-old will that left the spouse's millions in assets to 17 charities.
- Aggressively defended a caveat dispute and related partition action over millions of dollars' worth of real property, resulting in full dismissal of plaintiff's claims, with prejudice.
- Secured a favorable order to divide and modify a multi-million dollar trust in a hotly-contested proceeding between second spouse and children from a first marriage.
- Awarded a sweeping verdict on behalf of the personal representative against beneficiary for the beneficiary's misappropriation of high-dollar estate property.
- Awarded substantial attorneys' fees on behalf of a personal representative after defending the fiduciary in a removal matter through trial.
- Obtained dismissal of complaint for breach of duty action filed by beneficiaries against the corporate fiduciary for its decision to diversify a concentrated holding. The action involved the beneficiaries' effort to revisit a decision by the corporate fiduciary to diversify the trust portfolio over time, before their interest matured. The court dismissed the action without leave to amend agreeing with the corporate fiduciary that the instrument afforded it the authority to diversify the stock used to fund the testamentary trust.
- Successfully resolved a seven-figure case involving financial exploitation of a vulnerable adult whose oldest daughter took advantage of him while he was isolated due to COVID and suffering from Stage IV lung cancer. After aggressively pursuing discovery, Ms. Preteroti recovered the 2/3 share due to the decedent's other two daughters and attorneys' fees.
- Won a complete Rule 12(b)(6) dismissal – with denial of the plaintiffs' leave to amend – of a six-count complaint for a national bank in an alleged breach of fiduciary duty matter.
