

Robert Meyer

Associate

Knoxville | 865.549.7211 | rmeyer@bakerdonelson.com

Rob Meyer focuses his practice on litigation matters across various industries.

Rob Meyer is an associate in Baker Donelson's Knoxville office and a member of the Health Care Litigation Group. He has significant experience representing clients in complex business disputes, including class actions. Since joining the Firm, Rob has drafted pretrial motions and supporting briefs in numerous commercial disputes. In these cases, he has defended clients against Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations (RICO), breach of contract, bad faith refusal to pay, and negligence claims.

Prior to joining Baker Donelson, Rob served as a judicial law clerk for the Honorable Martin Reidinger, Chief United States District Judge for the Western District of North Carolina.

Representative Matters

- Drafted a successful motion for summary judgment and supporting brief, resulting in the dismissal of a bad faith refusal to pay claim against a major insurer.
- Drafted numerous motions to dismiss and supporting briefs in multi-million dollar RICO fraud actions.
- Drafted several motions to strike class allegations and supporting briefs in multi-million dollar class actions.
- Drafted an appellate brief on behalf of appellee factoring companies in an appeal of the trial court's denial of a motion to set aside a final judgment.
- Drafted a demand for arbitration in a multi-million dollar health care billing dispute.
- Successfully defended a medical staffing company against a putative class action lawsuit alleging the company inappropriately billed hundreds of thousands of claims. Won a motion to dismiss the entire complaint.

Publications

- "Effectively Utilizing the Sherman Act to Address the Anticompetitive Use of Non-Compete Clauses in Tennessee Labor Contracts," Tennessee Journal of Law, Leadership, and Policy, Volume 16, Issue 1 (Winter 2023)

Education

- University of Tennessee College of Law, J.D., 2021, summa cum laude
 - Order of the Coif
 - Executive Editor – Tennessee Law Review
- College of William & Mary, B.A., 2017, cum laude

Admissions

- Tennessee, 2021
- U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Tennessee, 2024