

James Tulp

Associate

Jackson | 601.351.2466 | jtulp@bakerdonelson.com

James Tulp focuses his practice on litigation matters across various industries, including financial services, energy, health care, and real estate.

James Tulp is an associate in Baker Donelson's Jackson office and a member of the Financial Services Department. He primarily represents businesses and financial institutions with respect to commercial litigation, contract disputes, and post-judgment collection activities in state and federal courts.

James regularly represents secured and unsecured creditors in a variety of matters, including bankruptcy cases, foreclosures, and other business litigation in state and federal courts.

During law school, James served as a judicial extern to Judge Cory T. Wilson of the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals, Judge Kristi H. Johnson of the United States District Court for the Southern District of Mississippi, and Magistrate Judge LaKeysha Greer Isaac of the United States District Court for the Southern District of Mississippi.

Professional Honors & Activities

- Member – American Bankruptcy Institute
- Member – Mississippi Bankruptcy Conference
- Member – Phoenix Club of Jackson
- Recruitment Chair – Jackson Young Lawyers (JYL)

Education

- Mississippi College School of Law, J.D., 2023, summa cum laude
 - First in Class
 - Order of the Barristers
 - Staff Editor – Mississippi College Law Review
- Mississippi College, M.S., Political Science, 2016
- Fordham University, B.A., Economics, 2013

Admissions

- Mississippi, 2023