Annie Lucatuorto is an associate in Baker Donelson's Metropark (Iselin), New Jersey office, where she is a member of the Health Law group.

Annie Lucatuorto provides strategic legal guidance to health care providers navigating complex corporate transactions and regulatory challenges. She assists hospitals, physician practices, and health systems with mergers, acquisitions, and divestitures, as well as ensuring compliance with federal and state regulations, including anti-kickback and self-referral laws.

Annie interned at the Medicaid Fraud Control Unit within the New York State Attorney General's office, providing legal support on cases involving Medicaid fraud and the mistreatment of vulnerable populations in nursing homes.

Her dedication to health law is deeply personal, fueled by her connection to a foundation that advocates for those with rare heart conditions. She continues to volunteer with the foundation, contributing her time and expertise to its community and advocacy efforts.
