Representative Matters

Results may vary depending on your particular facts and legal circumstances.

- Assisted a nationally recognized, physician-owned practice specializing in reproductive medicine, in connection with a recapitalization transaction with one of the nation's leading reproductive service providers, and the U.S. arm of a global private equity-backed company.
- Assisted a national medical group in an expansion into Pennsylvania that included a complex multi-site acquisition on time and within budget.
- Assisted the purchaser in a complex acquisition of a large California medical group, which involved two separate phases due to issues with payor contract assignments. The transaction itself involved an asset purchase that included a TSA and ultimately a reconfiguration to provide for a corporate practice platform arrangement.
- Assisted a national provider group in its expansion into a new state and executed the platform acquisition of a multi-site provider group. This acquisition involved a complex structure, including an equity roll, complex tax considerations, and extensive and complex physician contracting.
