Patton Hahn Quoted in Law360 on Sbarro's Second Bankruptcy

The troubled restaurant chain Sbarro Holdings LLC, which is crashing back into bankruptcy just two years after exiting Chapter 11 protection, is offering up a new debt-for-equity swap deal to lenders. In this Law360 article, Patton Hahn notes that Sbarro's heavy emphasis on malls may work in its favor in negotiations, as a common company will be holding many of its leases. "You can approach them as a package and say we would like to treat your leases uniformly," said Mr. Hahn.
