Jennifer Keller Q&A in Bloomberg BNA

Jennifer Keller talks with Bloomberg BNA about women in the legal profession, her career and becoming the first woman elected president and chief operating officer at Baker Donelson.

"I am going to transition out of my litigation practice. As President and COO, I'm responsible for the day-to-day activities such as alternative fee arrangements, recruiting associates, and paralegals and working closely with the chair of the firm, who handles more of the strategy. The COO has generally been the primary interface with our practice groups and looking at financials — strategy from that more micro-perspective."
