S. Craig Holden Recognized in 2019 BTI Client Service All-Stars List

April 04, 2019

Baker Donelson is pleased to announce that S. Craig Holden has been recognized in BTI Consulting Group's 2019 Client Service All-Stars list. Mr. Holden was nominated by a global health care company in the area of health law.

Mr. Holden is a shareholder in Baker Donelson's Baltimore office and a member of the BakerOber Health Law Group, focusing his practice on serving clients in all areas of the health care industry, with particular emphasis on advising clients on Medicare and Medicaid fraud and abuse issues, pharmaceutical pricing issues, Medicare and other third-party reimbursement issues, and general compliance matters. He has also represented numerous health care industry clients in government fraud and abuse investigations. Mr. Holden is a former trial attorney with the Inspector General Division, Office of the General Counsel, Department of Health and Human Services (HHS). He serves as President-Elect Designate of the American Health Law Association (AHLA) and has been recognized as a leading healthcare attorney by Chambers USA since 2011, by The Best Lawyers in America® and Maryland Super Lawyers since 2007. In 2019, he was named the "Lawyer of the Year" for Health Care in Baltimore by The Best Lawyers in America.

The 18th annual BTI Client Service All-Stars guide is comprised of 335 attorneys who were identified for their exceptional client service by more than 350 corporate counsel and legal decision makers from organizations with $1 billion or more in revenue. Honorees are noted for being proactive in providing value-added service, demonstrating superior client focus by understanding the client's business, and combining innovative thought-leadership with legal skills to deliver outstanding results.
