

PRESS RELEASE

Baker Donelson Adds Lindsay E. Ray to Government Enforcement and Investigations Practice

February 22, 2022

Attorney Lindsay Ray has joined Baker Donelson as a member of the Firm's Government Enforcement and Investigations Group.

Joining as of counsel in the Firm's Nashville office, Ms. Ray represents clients in litigation matters, with a focus on white collar defense, complex commercial litigation, securities litigation, labor and employment disputes, and governmental investigations. She represents clients in a variety of industries, including investment firms, real estate developers, entertainment and media companies, companies in the power generation industry, pharmaceutical companies, and hedge funds, as well as individuals subject to governmental investigations and criminal prosecution.

Additionally, Ms. Ray has dedicated a significant amount of time to pro bono matters, including the successful negotiation of a settlement on behalf of an artist with regard to the misuse of his copyright-protected photographs and other work. She also represented an inmate of New York's Department of Corrections and Community Supervision in his Section 1983 prisoners' rights case involving the Eighth and Fourteenth Amendment violations caused by his four-and-a-half years spent in solitary confinement.

A graduate of the Indiana University Maurer School of Law, Ms. Ray is a member of the New York County Lawyers' Association McInerney Inn of Court.