

PRESS RELEASE

Baker Donelson Named Law Firm of the Year at Landry's Leadership Conference Vendor Awards

March 27, 2025

Baker Donelson has been named Law Firm of the Year at the Landry's Leadership Conference Vendor Awards. The award was presented by general counsel Steve Scheinthal, who praised Baker Donelson's dedication and unwavering support, specifically the contributions of Baker Donelson shareholder Amy Kebert Elder.

Based in the Firm's Jackson, Mississippi, office, Ms. Elder advises privately held and publicly held casino operators, gaming-related manufacturers, casino management companies, investors, developers, commercial lenders, and private equity firms on licensure, regulatory compliance, administrative hearings, financing, and project development. She is an experienced gaming attorney and regularly appears before the Mississippi Gaming Commission. Ms. Elder has extensive experience representing casino operators, gaming manufacturers, investors, and financial institutions, and her clients include some of the largest gaming operators and equipment manufacturers in the industry.

Ms. Elder serves on the board of trustees for the International Association of Gaming Advisors (IAGA) and as co-chair of the 2025 International Gaming Summit Program Committee. She also previously served on the Americas Advisory Committee (chair), and the Communications Committee (co-chair). She is a member of Global Gaming Women, the Mississippi Women Lawyers Association, and the American and Capital Area Bar Associations. Ms. Elder is listed in The Best Lawyers in America® for Gaming Law (since 2018) and Leisure and Hospitality Law (since 2022), and she is ranked in Chambers USA as a leading lawyer in Mississippi (since 2019) and nationwide (since 2022) for Gaming & Licensing.